

ePortfolio Australia — imagining new literacies conference - workshops

Organising Committee

Janette Ellis

Janette is the Principal of generatED - Education Consultancy specialising in innovation and creativity. She focuses on New Learning and New Thinking theory and skills development. Janette started developing her professional portfolio with women@thecutting edge and has since been involved in supporting teachers to develop digital portfolios for professional learning and demonstrating professional standards. She is currently working with the Department of Education and Training to develop digital portfolios for student learning within the context of the Victorian Essential Learning Standards.

Elizabeth Hartnell-Young

Dr Elizabeth Hartnell-Young is the co-author of Digital Portfolios: Powerful Tools for Professional Growth and Reflection (second edition), which will be launched at the conference. She is currently a research fellow at the University of Nottingham, after several years with The University of Melbourne. She has been actively involved with ePortfolio projects and conferences in Australia and overseas, and was a founder of women@the cutting edge, a project designed to increase technical skills and knowledge of learning through portfolio development, funded by AT&T.

Paul Fritze

Dr Paul Fritze of The University of Melbourne will run the pre-conference online workshop, following the format of the very successful workshop prior to the 2004 Conference. His interests lie in educational information systems research, providing an opportunity to connect with teachers and students and better understand workplace issues. This includes communities of practice, online architectures to support innovation in teaching and methods for visual representation of complex data.

European Institute for eLearning:

Serge Ravet & Maureen Layte

Since the first ePortfolio conference in France in 2003, Serge and Maureen have organised several conferences in Europe, North America and Australasia, as well as working on ePortfolio and eLearning projects.
